Garden Briefing

Posted: April 17, 2006

Gardeners' hearing needs special care, too

When it's time to crank up the heavy equipment, you usually are thinking more about your lawn than your health. But lawn mowers, trimmers and leaf blowers can be loud enough to damage your hearing over time.

NoiseBuster headphones electronically reduce irritating background noise by coupling low-frequency noise waves with their mirror-image waves.

NoiseBuster can be used on its own for simple peace and quiet or to listen to music in conjunction with a portable audio device.

They're priced at $69.

For more information, go to www.noisebuster.net or call (800) 468-8371.

Keep soil in pots, not in vehicle

Beautifying your garden needn't leave your car trunk a mess.

A waterproof plant holder called the Box Tidy will keep your newly purchased plants in place on the ride home. The holder stores flat and unfolds to create four 11 1/2 -inch square compartments, each seven
